

Draft Agenda: 3rd Eastern Partnership Ministerial Meeting on Environment and Climate Change
Virtual, 22nd June 2021 (CET)

10:00 – 10:10	Welcome address by the Portuguese Presidency and European Commission
10:10 – 12:40	Enabling a climate-neutral, green recovery that benefits people and nature Progress on delivering on shared objectives in the EaP and looking ahead on the post 2020 EaP framework, in particular in preparation to COPs and financing transition towards green economies and decarbonisation Introduction by the Portuguese Presidency and the European Commission Statements by EaP countries (5' each) and short interventions (3' max) from Member States and other stakeholders Guiding questions (for orientation only): <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ [EaP partners]: What are [your country's] key policy and domestic investment commitments, to make recovery green and aligned with the principle of do-no-harm? What are opportunities and challenges in that respect?○ [All participants]: What progress was made and lessons were learnt in our cooperation since the last Eastern Partnership Ministerial Meeting 2018? What new approaches could be adopted by the EU, its Member States and IFIs in support of the green transformation?
12:40-12:50	Wrap-up by the European Commission
12:50 – 13:00	Conclusions by the Portuguese Presidency